Depending on the legal form and the type of the constitutional documents i.e. notarized document containing the company's Articles of Association or a private document using the "Model AoA" (L. 4441/2016, A' and Ministerial Decision 31637/2017 B') the following options are provided:

- a) When the "Model AoA" is used, the one stop shop service for any form of company can be:
 - i) the General Commercial Registry, namely the GE.MI.
 - ii) a Notary public
 - iii) the Electronic One-stop shop Service (e-YMS).
- b) When the "Model AoA" is not used, the one-stop shop service for the Company Limited by Shares (Soci t  Anonyme) and the Limited Liability Company (E.P.E.) is a Notary public, while for Personal Companies (O.E. and E.E.) and Private Capital Companies (IKE) the one-stop shop service is either the General Commercial Registry of the competent Chamber of Commerce or a Notary public.
- c) In cases where by specific provisions a notarial deed is required for a specific activity or for the transfer of contributions in kind, then, independently of the legal form, the establishment must be done by a notary public.

The typical time required for the establishment of any form of company is two (2) working days.

A.

Forms of Companies/Enterprises

Individual Enterprise

(Sole Traders/Freelance Professionals)

This form of enterprise is easy to set up and gives high flexibility and initiative to the entrepreneur as regards the enterprise decisions, the type of activity involved, the selection of the adopted technical methods and, up to a point, the volume of production. On the other hand, the entrepreneur is wholly responsible for any liability for taxes and debts in general. There is no minimum capital requirement.

Establishing an individual company

An individual company requires a pre-approval of the company name and the distinctive title by a relevant confirmation of the competent, depending on the type of the business activity, chamber of commerce (L.2081/1992, A'154). Moreover, it requires insurance with the competent obligatory insurer for all self-employed professionals, craftsmen, traders and motorists (<https://www.efka.gov.gr>). The next stage includes the declaration of the commencement of the business activity at the competent tax office (D.O.Y.), where the company is registered.

An individual company must then register at the competent chamber of commerce upon a relevant application signed by the undertaking.

General Partnership (G.P./O.E.)

A general partnership is defined by law to be the association of two or more (natural or legal) persons, whose partners are jointly responsible against third parties for the company's obligations. Such responsibility is considered as personal, direct and unlimited (L. 4072/2012, A' 86). The liability of the partners for the company's debts is unlimited meaning that partners are liable not only up to their contributions, but also with their individual property. The legal framework for General Partnerships in Greece (L. 4072/2012) was recently amended by Law 4541/2018, A' 86).

Legal personality and publicity

A general partnership is a company with legal personality. A general partnership acquires its legal personality by its registration with the GE.MI. meaning that the publicity of a general partnership is inherent in the acquisition of legal personality. The publicity for a general partnership is done by its registration at the GE.MI. and on its website as a constitutive publicity. (L. 3419/2005, A'297)

A general partnership is registered with the General Commercial Registry (GE.MI.) with the consent of all of its partners. Among the data to be registered are, at least, the name and residence of the partners, the name of the partnership, its registered office and the purpose of the business, as well as its representative. Any subsequent amendment to this information must be recorded by the Greek business register (GE.MI.).

Capital and Partnership parts

There is no minimum capital requirement for the establishment of a general partnership, since the assets of the company are not distinguished from the partner's asset and partners are liable with their personal assets for all of the partnership's obligations.

Establishing a General Partnership

A general partnership is established at the one-stop shop services defined by the JMD No 63577/2018 (B'2380), when the standard "Model AoA" is used. The model AoA must be followed without any deviation from its exclusive content. When the Model AoA is not used a general partnership is established either at the GE.MI. of the competent Chamber of Commerce or by a Notary Public.

General Terms: For the establishment of a general partnership and the draft of the partnership agreement the contracting partners must be natural or legal persons and they must keep all the elements of the partnership agreement required by law.

Special Terms: Partners must pay out their common contributions, i.e. any contribution in cash or in kind and labor contribution, even intangible assets, such as commercial loyalty. Partners must also determine a legitimate common company purpose with an intention of partnership and follow the publicity formalities set by law.

Company name

The name of a general partnership is formed either by the name of one or more partners or by the object of its business activity or by other verbal indications and it can be partially or entirely written in Latin letters. The corporate name must include written out in full the words "Ομόρρυθμη Εταιρία" or the acronym "O.E." For its international transactions the aforementioned words are expressed as "General Partnership" and the acronym as "G.P."

Limited Partnership (E.E.)

A limited partnership has the same characteristics with a general partnership, since it is a variant of it. The main difference between a limited partnership and a general partnership is within the scope of responsibility meaning the existence of partners with or without limited personal responsibility and the limitation of the management of the limited partners. A limited partner who has paid out its contribution to the company is not responsible for the partnership's debt. In the opposite case he is responsible up to the amount of his contribution.

The same general rules applying to a general partnership must also hold for a limited partnership. The legal framework for limited partnerships in Greece (L. 4072/2012, A'86) was recently amended by Article 10 of Law 4541/2018 (A'93).

A limited partnership is a commercial company and it has company assets. The general partner of a limited partnership acquires the commercial property only by his participation to the limited partnership, while the limited partner has typically no commercial property.

Legal personality and publicity

A limited partnership has legal personality and pursues a commercial purpose. At least one of the partners (limited partner) must have limited liability, while another one of the partners (general partner) must have unlimited liability.

The publicity for a limited partnership is done by its registration at the GE.MI. and on its website as a constitutive publicity. A limited partnership is registered at the General Commercial Registry (GE.MI.) with the consent of all of its partners. Additional to the data defined by L.4072/2012, the name, address and the value of the limited partners' contributions must also be registered at the GE.MI.

Capital and Partnership parts

There is no minimum capital requirement set by law for the establishment of a limited partnership. Partners must pay out their common contributions in cash, in kind, in labor etc.

Establishing a Limited Partnership

A limited partnership can be established at the one-stop shop services defined by the Ministerial Decision No 63577/2018 (B'2380), when the standard "Model AoA" is used. When the model AoA is not used, then a limited partnership is established either at GE.MI. of the competent Chamber of Commerce or by a Notary public.

Company name

The company name is formed either by the name of one or more partners or by the object of the business activity or by other verbal indications and it can be partially or entirely written in Latin letters. The company name must include written out in full the words "Ετερόρρυθμη Εταιρία" or the acronym "E.E". For its international transactions, the aforementioned words are expressed as "Limited Partnership" or/and the acronym as "LP".

Joint Venture

A joint venture is a company without a legal personality (L. 4072/2012, A'86). When registered at the GE.MI. or appears outward, it acquires, as a union of persons, legal capacity and bankruptcy ability.

For a joint venture, which was formed with the purpose to coordinate its members' activity, the provision of the law for the civil society shall apply. The contract of the joint venture may provide that its members will be jointly liable for its debts.

If a joint venture performs a commercial activity, then its registration at the GE.MI. is mandatory and the provisions of the law for the general partnership shall apply. The aforementioned provisions shall also apply to the specially regulated joint ventures, unless there is an opposite provision by a special regulation.

One or two partners are required for the formation of a limited liability company. A limited liability company is liable for its debts with its assets.

The personal liability of the partners cannot be engaged and liability is limited to the amounts contributed by each partner in return for its portions of participation. The legal framework for limited liability companies in Greece (L. 3190/1955, A' 91) was amended by L. 4541/2018 (A' 93).

Partnership capital requirements

The partnership capital is determined by partners with no restriction. The minimum nominal value of each partnership part is set to be at least 1 Euro. All partnership parts shall get the same nominal value. The partnership capital can be formed by contributions in cash or in kind. In the latter case, contributions must be assets which can be evaluated in cash.

The private capital company has capital of at least one (1) Euro. Partners may participate with capital, non-capital or with guarantee contributions. Capital contributions are contributions in cash or in kind. Capital contributions in kind are only allowed when they refer to assets which can be evaluated in cash. Valuation is not required, if the value of the contribution, according to the company's statutes or the decision which increases the company's capital, does not exceed five thousand (5,000) Euro. As regards corporate obligations, only the legal entity is liable by its assets.

Company Limited by Shares - Société Anonyme (S.A.)

A Company Limited by Shares, namely the Société Anonyme, is a capital company with legal personality, which is responsible for its debts with its assets. The company's capital is divided into shares. A company limited by shares is a commercial company, even if its purpose is not the exercise of a commercial activity. Businesses organized as companies limited by shares are typically more significant in financial terms. The internal organization of a company limited by shares includes the General Assembly of Shareholders, the Board of Directors and the Auditors. Shareholders own shares of the company which are either registered or bearer shares. Shareholders are not personally liable and their liability is limited to the amount of their investment. A Société Anonyme is incorporated and operates under L. 2190/1920, as amended by Law 4548/2018 (A' 104).

Share capital requirements

A minimum initial capital of 25,000 Euro is required for the formation of a company limited by shares to be paid entirely or partially. Shareholders' contributions may be in cash or in kind. The company's capital is divided into shares, which can be incorporated into equity securities of one or more shares or, with the preconditions of the law, to be intangible.

The nominal value of each share cannot be defined to an amount less than four euro cents (0.04) nor more than one hundred (100) Euro. The nominal value must be equal for all shares. Exceptionally, shares of one series or category may have a different nominal value. The shares issued by the company are common shares, provided that they are not of a category for which there is a special provision by law. The company must have at least one common share. Common shares provide all the rights set by law, except for those provided for certain categories of shares. In any case, common shares provide voting rights and rights to the company's profits as well as rights to the company's liquidation product.

All rights deriving from the company's share must correspond to the percentage of the company's share capital each share represents.

Establishing a company Limited by Shares

A Société Anonyme can be established by one or more persons (founders) or become a Single-member S.A. concentrating all its shares in one single person. In the first case a notary public acts as the "one stop shop" service, whilst in the latter case the General Electronic Commercial Registry (GE.MI) of the competent Chamber of Commerce is the "one-stop shop" service, which undertakes all the checks defined by law.

In case the business activity extends to more than one business objectives, the company name can be related to the main ones. Moreover, the company name can be entirely or partially expressed in Latin letters. Any potential widening of the business purpose does not oblige the company to change its name.

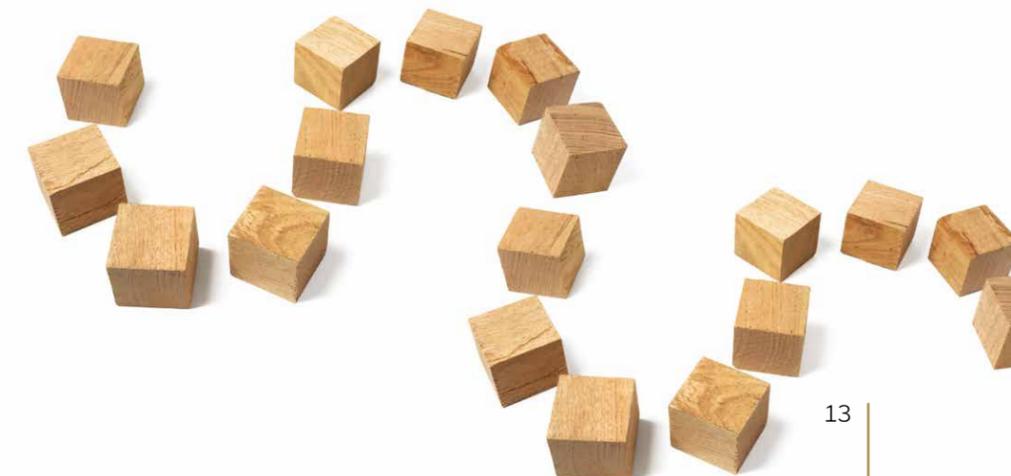

The name must include written out in full the words «Ανώνυμη Εταιρία» or the acronym «A.E.». For its international transactions the previous words are expressed as «Société Anonyme» or the acronym «S.A.».
