Ionian islands are traditionally called the Heptanese, "the Seven Islands" but the group includes many smaller islands apart from the seven principal ones: Corfu, Paxoi, Lefkada, Ithaca, Kefalonia, Zakynthos, Kythira.

The six northern islands are off the west coast of Greece, in the Ionian Sea. The seventh island, Kythira, is off the southern tip of the Peloponnese and is not part of the administrative Region of Ionian Islands, as it is included in the region of Attica.

The Ionian Islands Region is one of the thirteen administrative Regions of Greece. Along with West Greece and Peloponnese regions, it is supervised by the Decentralized Administration of Peloponnese, West Greece and Ionian Islands based at Patras. The Region of Ionian Islands is based at Corfu and it supervises 5 regional units:

- Corfu
- Kefalonia
- Ithaca
- Lefkada
- Zakynthos

1. Profile of the Region of Ionian Islands

2. Ionian Islands’ competitive advantages

3. Investment Opportunities in Ionian Islands
The Region of Ionian Islands is known for its great variety of landscape, in which a dominant role played by the lush vegetation and the geomorphology of the coastline the length of which represents roughly 8% of the entire country’s coastline.

Verdant coves, natural ports, and wide sandy beaches compose the coastal zone of each island, forming human scale landscapes which in conjunction with the mild climate lend themselves to marine tourism.

The natural environment is known for its rich fauna and flora and also for the good condition of its habitats and ecosystems. In Zakynthos there is a marine park, the habitat of the world-renowned turtle caretta-caretta, in Kefalonia the national park of Aenos, with a particular species of fir-tree (abies cephalonica). Lagoons in Corfu and Lefkada are of interest to environmentalists. Kefalonia, Ithaca and Paxoi boast remarkable caves, still largely unexplored.
The Region is served by three international airports, four Heliports, eighty-nine ports, two Water-Airports and a satisfactory public road network.

Airports
1. Corfu International Airport "Kapodistrias"
2. Kefalonia International Airport
3. Zakynthos International Airport "Dionysios Solomos“
* Lefkada is also served by Aktion Airport

Heliports
1. Ithaca
2. Paxoi
3. Othoni
4. Ereikoussa

Ports
In the Region of Ionian Islands there are 89 ports, variety of uses (Passenger, yacht shelters, fishing shelters, ports yachts etc.)

Water-Airports
Operating licenses for the water airports on Corfu and Paxoi.

Ionian Islands offer an interesting environment for investment...

Ionian Islands advantages

Ionian Islands boast a number of attractive features such as:

1. Location. The Region stretches along the western coast of the central part of the Greek mainland and further to the south along the western coast of the Peloponnese
2. Developed transport infrastructure (Airports, heliports, ports and satisfactory public road network)
3. Operation of Ionian University and Technological Educational Institute
4. Tourism and Cultural sites (12th-century fort Agia Mavra, the Charamogleious Eidiki Lefkadiaki Library, the 15th-century Old Fortress and Spianada, the Saint Michael and George Palace in Corfu etc.)
5. Natural resources marine park, the habitat of the world-renowned turtle caretta-caretta, the national park of Aenos, with a particular species of fir-tree (abies cephalonica).
6. Opportunity for development of Solar & Wind

..are enhanced by investment incentives

- Under the new Investment Incentives Law L.4399/2016, Western Greece enjoys attractive investment incentives varying from 25% to 45% of the total investment cost, according to the size of the company and the region of the country in which the project will be implemented.
- The aid schemes of the Law include:
  1) Tax exemptions
  2) Cash grants
  3) Leasing subsidies
  4) Wage costs subsidy
  5) Stable corporate tax rate for 12 years
  6) Financing of business risk through loans or equity
  7) Fast track licensing

All aid schemes are provided individually or in combination and they are calculated cumulatively for the determination of the total aid.
Hellenic Republic Assets Development Fund - HRADF concluded successfully an international tender process that resulted in the granting of the right of concession for the development and operation of 14 regional airports in Greece. In particular, 40-year concessions to upgrade, maintain, manage and operate regional airports have been conferred to a consortium of companies consisting of Fraport AG Frankfurt Airport Services Worldwide and Slentel Limited of Copelouzos Group. In cluster A included the airports of Corfu, Kefalonia, and Zakynthos.

The portfolio of the Hellenic Republic includes the port of Corfu. Particularly, HRADF holds 100% of the shares in the port and has the right to operate it until 2042. The Hellenic Republic is in the process of evaluating the most appropriate approach for the development of the port of Corfu.

Reasons to Invest in Ionian islands

- Important location: The Ionian Islands stretch along the western coast of the central part of the Greek mainland and further to the south along the western coast of the Peloponnese. Also part of the developing area of Adriatic which connects Italy with Greece.

- Natural and cultural treasures: Their unique natural beauty combined with their long history and a blend of various cultures and influences that have left their stamp on the islands.

- An international transportation hub: Ionian Islands can easily be accessed through numerous charter flights from various European cities throughout the summer months or by regular ferryboat connections from the Italian ports of Brindisi, Bari, Ancona and Venice.

- Great tourism infrastructure: One of the most popular destinations offering an upgraded and diversified tourist product that includes excellent hotel accommodations, restaurants, diving centres, sea sports etc.

- International interest in the energy sector: It is a center of international interest in the energy sector, given its strategic location, the huge wind and solar resources, as well as possession of local experience and expertise. This interest is expected to grow and expand in the coming years.

- Support of the local Authorities: The consistent and unwavering support of the local Authorities of the Region, as well as the hospitable and business-friendly people of the islands.
One of the most popular destinations in the world is undergoing a regeneration, offering an upgraded and diversified tourist product.
Tourism - Introduction

Tourism infrastructure

• In the last three years the port of Corfu handles (apart cruise ships) an average of 1,300,000 passengers and 536,000 vehicles, as well as 485 cruise ships with 640,000 passengers. The average turnover for the same period is 2,900,000 €

• Greece holds in 2016 the 3rd place among 50 countries worldwide in the European Blue Flag Program, with 430 beaches and 9 marinas
  • The Ionian islands, particularly Kefalonia and Lefkada, also distinguish for their clean and organized beaches, proving that the Greek coasts have nothing to jealous out of the other famous beach resorts of the world.

• Many of diving centers in the region, offering a great opportunity to discover interesting sites (Temple Cave in Fiscardo, the Catacombs, the Blue Canyon in Lassi, the shipwreck of the Italian WWII ship, the marine park etc)

Unique competitive advantages

• Long unexploited pristine beaches

• A Region of unspoilt natural beauty: marine park, the habitat of the world-renowned turtle caretta-caretta, in Kefalonia the national park of Aenos, lagoons in Corfu and Lefkada, remarkable caves in Kefalonia, Ithaca and Paxoi

• Existing infrastructure and undergoing projects will improve accessibility: Fraport will be responsible for maintaining, operating, managing, upgrading and developing regional airports of Corfu, Kefalonia and Zakynthos over a period of 40 years

• Unique archaeological sites and historic places of great importance: Ancient City of Nirikos Corfu Archaeological Museum Roman Grave Complex, Roman Grave Complex, Castle of St. Maura, Lefkada Archaeological Museum

• Public and private investments implemented and in the pipeline highly upgrade the mix of the tourism product in the region

The Ionian Islands ranked first among popular Greek tourist destinations in 2016. More specifically, the Ionian Islands recorded a 13.2 % increase year-on-year in the number of arrivals in January-October 2016.

Corfu increased arrivals by 31.8 %, Kefalonia by 37.7 %, and Zakynthos by 51 %.
The increase of tourists on the islands have led to the extension of the tourist season and therefore many great tourist facilities stay open till the end of October.

Corfu airport came second at 2.8 million passengers

According to Hellenic Ports Association, Corfu became the third most important port in the country, based on visitor arrivals, reaching the 748,916 from 647,347 in 2016.

Kefalonia and Ithaca port received 77 cruise boats in 2016 and 85,463 passengers.

The home of the Mediterranean diet is becoming a favourite with foodies from around the world, who enjoy the highest quality ingredients on offer.
Food & Beverage:
An overview

Key Area Products

- Olive Oil: Production of excellent quality olive oil
- Citrus Fruits: Production of oranges. Additionally, the golden orange or 'kam kwat' in Chinese is extensively cultivated in Corfu from 1924.
- Honey: Apiculture is also included among the inhabitants’ activities. The region’s flora gives the raw material for the production of a very particular honey.
- Livestock: Production of various dairy and cheese products.
- Vineyards: Wine production is very important in the region. Vineyards can be found on almost all Ionian Islands, because their mild climate, with abundant rainfalls -more than the rest of Greece- favors their development.

...and some unique characteristics

- Wine Industry: Ionian Islands have a long tradition of wine production. The wines produced are V.Q.P.R.D.: Robola of Cephalonia, Mavrodaphne of Cephalonia and white Muscat of Cephalonia. Also the Regional Wines of: Slopes of Mt Enos, Metaxata, Mantzavinata, Lefkada, Corfu, Halikouna and Verdea, a Traditional Appellation wine.
- Cheese Industry: The Kefalonian cheese-makers are renowned all over Greece and abroad. Based on traditional techniques they produce high quality feta cheese as well as hard cheese and skim-milk cheese.
